

HOTEL MEN KIND TO AMERICAN REFUGEES

Returning Washingtonians Tell of Courtesies Shown by Swiss and Italians.

Interesting stories of their flight from war-torn Europe are being told today by many Washingtonians who have just got home.

High praise is given the hotel proprietors of Switzerland and Italy by Emil Berliner, an American inventor, who returned on the steamer San Giuliano from Naples. With his family he made the eleven-day trip in the steamer, paying $10 a berth. He declared that many Americans who never knew the meaning of lack of funds for their extravagance turned over their last dollar to the hotel proprietors for some necessity. He said that the Swiss and Italian hotel proprietors cared for Americans, though they knew their inability to pay cash. He said that tourists were treated with every courtesy, and comfort, and rates were reduced for fully three weeks after the war started.

Praises American Officials.
Mr. Berliner had high praise for Ambassador Page, Consul White, at Naples, and other American officials, who did their utmost for stranded tourists.

Assistant Secretary of State Alvey A. Adee, United States delegate to the intergovernmental conference, who had suffered no personal hardship, though he lost his bicycle and baggage, which were left behind in Paris.

Tourists in Munich, Germany, had little difficulty in getting money, according to Miss Egle Gerike, of the Holton Arms School, who, with Miss Louise De Lane, has just reached Washington. Miss Gerike says that checks and credit were cashed in Munich with little delay. She is one of the few fortunate Americans who brought her baggage through, and she is enthusiastic over the German treatment of Americans. Miss Gerike said that everywhere American tourists were treated with the utmost courtesy and consideration under the circumstances.

Justice Howry at Havre.

Justice Charles R. Howry, of the United States Court of Claims, with his family, has arrived at Havre, France, according to a cable just received. Lucien R. Howry, son of the judge, has written while the family was in Bern, Switzerland. They were comfortable at the time, but had lost their baggage and had difficulty getting checks cashed.

Col. Henry May, Mrs. May, and their daughter, Isabelle, have arrived in New York, and are expected in Washington today.

Many other Washingtonians have been reported at home or in some safe haven abroad.

Mrs. Thomas J. Stanton is in London, and will sail for home on September 23. Lieut. Edward St. John Greble has notified his friends that he will remain in Paris during the war.

Miss Mary and Grace Griffin, daughters of Appleton C. Griffin, Assistant Librarian of Congress, are in London, as is Attorney Alexander G. Bentley.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Johnson reached Washington yesterday.

ALEXANDRIA'S SPLIT ON ISSUE OF WATER

School Board Refused Free Service by Brewery, and Whole City Is Interested.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Sept. 6.—The State-wide prohibition fight, which is fast becoming the sole topic of discussion in Alexandria, has been injected into the public mind by the refusal of the city school board to accept an offer made by the Robert Porter Brewing Company to supply free water from their artesian well because of the reported unhealthy condition of the water from the city reservoir, which is desired by experts to be responsible for the typhoid fever outbreak.

The offer was made at the meeting of the school board, which took place at the city hall, and a sufficient number of people gathered to witness the proceedings. The school board, which is composed of the city fathers, and the Robert Porter Brewing Company, to supply free water from their artesian well because of the reported unhealthy condition of the water from the city reservoir, which is desired by experts to be responsible for the typhoid fever outbreak.

"PORK" BILL BACKERS PROTEST ANY CUT

Demand That Congress Shall Make Up Threatened Deficit
by War Tax.

Democratic leaders are having trouble in working out the war tax problem. It is made the more embarrassing to them by the insistence of some of the Democratic Senators and House members that the river and harbor bill, with its enormous appropriations and authorizations, be passed. From all over the country a storm of objection is arising to the imposition of war taxes to make a "pork barrel" bill possible.

The indications are that the bulk of the war tax will fall on beer. It is estimated that of the $300,000,000 additional revenue wanted $200,000,000 of this can be raised on beer.

House Ways and Means Democrats worked on the bill yesterday and made some progress, but struck many snags. They did not decide whether the beer tax should be 50 or 60 cents a barrel. This was left open for decision at a meeting on Tuesday morning. It is expected the bill will be completed today and will be presented to the House.

Three commodities have been selected for taxation, which will raise about $25,000,000. What the two are aside from beer is not announced.

How to raise the other $225,000,000 is a problem unsolved. The President was consulted by Congressmen Hull and Celler as to whether an increase of the income tax was not advisable.

Wide disagreement is found in the Ways and Means Committee as to how the additional $25,000,000 shall be raised. Some members want the income tax rate made 1 1/2 per cent instead of 1 per cent, as at present.

Some members of the House and Senate have practically blocked an increased tax on tobacco, and are fighting hard against more tax on whiskey. It is said to be unlikely that a stamp tax will be imposed.

The bill is not yet by any means settled by the Ways and Means committee action or by the House action. The Senate can amend the bill, and is disposed to do so. A stamp tax finds favor in the Senate.

TUCKERTON RADIO NOW OPEN TO ALL

Envoys of Warring Nations
Notified Wireless Will Be Operated Under U. S. Censor

Diplomatic representatives of European nations have been advised of President Wilson's order directing the Navy Department to take over the Tuckerton, N. J., wireless station and operate it on equal terms for belligerent and neutral nations, mention of which was made in the 5-30 edition of The Times last evening.

The executive order specifies that "one or more of the high-powered radio stations within the jurisdiction of the United States and capable of transmitting communications shall be taken over by the Government of the United States and used or controlled by it for the purpose of carrying on communication with land stations in Europe, including code and cipher messages."

This makes no mention of the Tuckerton station, but it was officially stated the order was designed primarily to permit the use of the station, as it is the one best equipped to exchange messages with European shore stations.

Secretary of the Navy Daniels has been directed to place naval officers in charge of the Tuckerton station, with instructions to accept code or cipher messages only from embassies or legations. Commercial business also will be accepted, and the proceeds from this use of the wireless will be held by the Government and turned over to the company which obtains ownership of the plant through the courts. Both French and German companies now claim ownership.

Decision to place an American naval operator in charge of the station will satisfy the objections of Great Britain against the use of the station with German operators in charge. The Sayville and other stations will retain their present status under American censorship.
